"17 Babies this week—and he hasn't seen his own grandson!"

"TONIGHT the Doctor was hoping to finish early, so he could take a two-hour train trip and snatch a look at his new 4-day-old grandson. But no—the phone caught him again. So now he's off to deliver Mrs. Johnson!"

Doctors have always been 'round-the-clock men. But since Pearl Harbor, with half of our physicians in the armed forces, each civilian doctor is more in demand than ever. He is on call today to an average of 1700 people.

Your doctor's minutes may be lifesaving time . . . too precious to waste. Help him save time for people who need him urgently, for yourself in an emergency, by remembering these four helpful things when you are ill:

PHONE HIM FIRST. Tell him as clearly as you can what's wrong. Let him decide whether he should come to see you, or you should go to him.

GO TO HIM whenever you are able. House visits take lots of your doctor's time—time when someone else may really need him urgently.

KEEP YOUR APPOINTMENT promptly, don't postpone it; make it at his convenience, so that he can plan his crowded hours better.

FOLLOW YOUR DOCTOR'S ADVICE to the letter—so that your trouble doesn't drag on, get complicated, or need extra attention from him.

SAVE YOUR DOCTOR'S TIME IN WARTIME!

A New way to Carve

Will your holiday bird be carved with professional skill? There's a simple, modern way to do it just as adroitly as do the smart chefs. The drawings and instructions given below are taken from a book "How to Carve Meat, Game and Poultry", by M. O. Cullen of the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Suggestion: clip them for the use of the family-carver!

After the turkey, roasting chicken, or other large fowl has been brought to the table on a platter, breast up and with the legs pointing to the right or left (depending on whether the carver is right or left-handed), the carver turns the turkey on its side so the back is toward him. Then he removes the drumstick by grasping the outer end and pulling gently while the knife cuts through the joint, separating it from the thigh.

Then the carver places the drumstick on a side plate, holding it upright, and slices its meat off, carving parallel with the bone. Next, he cuts thin slices from the thigh, continuing until the thigh bone itself is exposed. Then he loosens the meat on each side of the thigh bone with tip of his knife, and removes the bone with tines of fork. Remaining thigh meat is sliced off while still attached to the bird.

Slicing breast meat with the grain, the carver takes lengthwise slices from the breast and wing until wing-to-body joint is exposed. Fork is established in wing, and wing is unjointed from body with knife. Thin lengthwise slices are removed until all white meat has been carved from this side of the bird. (All meat, of course, is placed on the side dish as it is cut.)

To get at the dressing, the thin skin under the thigh is slit with tip of the knife, making an opening large enough to allow entrance of serving spoon. "Getting at" the dressing is much simplified by this method.

Once half the turkey has been accounted for, in this manner—and provided the carver needs still more meat for a complete serving—the platter's position is reversed. The bird is turned over, to put the meaty side on top again. And the process is repeated. Simple? Of course!

Nancy Holmes SUGGESTS

THANKSGIVING is traditional. Anticipation of turkey and trimmings has made mouths water since the first time our forefathers set aside a day of Thanksgiving in 1621 to show appreciation of the many blessings of this new land.

Nancy Holmes of the Best Foods kitchens says it is patriotic to serve chicken this year because Uncle Sam is doing his very best to provide a big slab of turkey for his men, whether they be strolling the streets of Paris, or huddled in a Quonset in the Aleutians, or fighting somewhere in the Pacific. This is the menu Nancy has planned: First, assorted relishes, then roasted chicken with rice-giblet stuffing, garnished with stuffed prunes. For vegetables serve baked sweet and white potatoes, and green beans, cauliflower and onions with a toasted almond hollandaise sauce. For the lighter side of the feast, a citrus salad with real mayonnaise is recommended. Of course pumpkin custard pie will be your dessert and you'll wind up with black coffee.

Roast Stuffed Chicken
Two 4-lb. roasting chickens
6 cups cooked rice
1 cup chopped onion
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Cooked giblets, chopped
6 tablespoons vitaminized margarine
Parsley
Stuffed prune garnish

Singe, clean, wash and dry chickens. Mix rice, onion, seasonings, giblets and vitaminized margarine. Stuff chickens and truss well. Brush generously with melted vitaminized margarine and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place chickens in hot oven (450° F.) 20 minutes. Reduce heat to slow oven (300° F.) and continue roasting about 1 1/2 hours, or until tender. Baste as necessary with giblet water. Garnish with parsley and tender, pitted prunes, stuffed with orange sections and arranged in orange shells. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Brownies Disappear

By Frances Lee Barton

TASTY brownies disappear from the cookie jar just as soon as Dad or kids find out where they are.

Little cakes that never spoil; Never lay around; Crispy brownies—made to eat Soon as they are found.

Brownies

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Melt butter and chocolate over boiling water. Add sugar gradually to eggs, beating thoroughly; then add chocolate mixture and blend. Add flour and mix well; then add nuts and vanilla. a tight cover is the safest place to store paper. Next best is to stack paper bundles on a cement floor away from furnace, stove or hot pipes. Soiled or oily paper is useless for salvage and is also a fire hazard and should be destroyed.

"Tars And Spars" Coming To Warfield

The United States Coast Guard musical revue, "Tars and Spars" now on a nation-wide record-breaking tour, makes its first Pacific Coast appearance in San Francisco beginning November 28. It will be seen on the stage of the Warfield theatre.

Unlike the other service shows, "Stars and Spars," plays before mass audiences instead of high-priced reserved seats. There is a definite purpose behind the show, which is the recruiting of SPARS and the quickest way to reach the most people was in film-vaudeville unit playing the nation's leading variety theatres at popular prices.
